

Harassments & Security Guards

Security guards should not be guilty of discrimination, but there must treat people equally. As a security guard you may judge people by their actions, but never because of their appearance.

Everyone has their right to the be treat inequality. Everyone, regardless of race, age, sex, etc. deserves the same treatment and courts yes "the best of us" If a guard discriminate against someone, or he can mistreat a person, those people rightly make a complaint against that guard.
