

1.3 Security Guarding:

Module 1

While there can be no doubt that some situations will involve physical intervention, the majority of tasks assigned require a security guard to observe, deter, record and report only. It is the role of a security guard to protect people, property and information.

