

Module 3

Surveillance

Alarm Monitoring & Response :An alarm system may be described as any mechanism designed or intended to provide immediate notification of a condition requiring urgent attention or response. It can be used to warn about a broad range of conditions such as:

