

Extent of Justification

The Ontario Use of Force Model indicates the appropriate use of force option based on the situational factors as well as the subjects behaviour. The use of force guideline that enables police officers and security guards to continuously assess a situation.

The five stages of Ontario's continuum are the following: Police officer presence

- Verbal communication
- Physical control Intermediate weapons
- Lethal force (using any force likely to cause permanent injury or death).