

Other duties re- licences No person shall,

- display or represent as valid a licence when the person to whom the licence was issued no longer meets a requirement under subsection
No person who holds a licence under this Act shall hold himself, herself or itself out as providing services or performing duties connected with police