

Grounds of Discrimination

Color: “Color” is listed as a ground in the Code but is an undefined term. A person's skin color can be seen as a physical feature that is commonly racialized. For the purposes of analysis, colour is a ground that may be encompassed by the concept of race and the principles described above.