

Module 6

Suspicious Packages

Other signs may include incorrect postage and general addressing (not directed to a specific person). In the event you or another person receive or find a suspicious package, gently put it down in a safe area and prevent others from touching it. Do not cover it with anything or immerse the package in water. Notify the proper authority according to your procedures and/or the bomb threat protocol in this manual.

