

Module 10

Avoid Hot Topics

Discriminatory behavior is inappropriate in any situation, however when this language is used by a Security Professional, it becomes dangerous.

Derogatory and discriminating comments will only

Create conflict between the parties involved, and will escalate. By using this type of language, we are essentially provoking to violence, the Guard in this case would not be able to use the justify his or her actions.

