

Module 10

Grounds of Discrimination

Pregnancy: These ideas are long-standing and persistent, even though they are not borne out by the facts. They may influence employers to refuse to hire pregnant women or women who may become pregnant, fire them, or discourage them from remaining at or returning to the workplace. The protections for “pregnancy” include pre-conception fertility treatments through to the period following childbirth, including breastfeeding.