

Asking You To Leave A Private Property

Under the Trespass To Property Act, a security guard can ask you to leave the private property without giving any reason for it. If you refuse to leave, then the security guard can arrest you as well.

Areas Under Which You Can Be Arrested

- If you commit a criminal offense on or against the private property
- If you are seen being chased by someone who has the authority to arrest you.

