

Module 8

Additional Legislation

Criminal Code of Canada - (Definition) : Security guards may encounter situations in which they need to deal with indictable or summary offences. They need to be able to accurately identify and categorize offences when on duty and understand when they are able to conduct a citizen's arrest according to the Criminal Code of Canada.