

Module 7

Evidence

Remove extra persons (curious onlookers) from the scene; asking witness to step forward and wait for further instructions walking through (including security personal) or trying to clean it up.

When the police arrive on scene make note of the time they arrived (include it in y our notebook and reports); introduce yourself to the officer taking charge and answer any questions the officer may have. Let the officer know if there are any witnesses to the incident.

