

Module 7

Provincial Courts (Ontario Court of Appeal and Ontario Court of Justice)

The Ontario Court of Appeal is the highest provincial court. This court will hear appeals from both civil and criminal cases. Most cases will be resolved at this level. Only about 3% of cases move forward to the Supreme Court of Canada.

The Superior Court of Justice will hear criminal, civil and family cases of a serious nature. The Superior Court of Ontario is presided over by Judges.

