

Module 10

Gender identity;

Sexual orientation : The Code prohibits incrimination in employment on the basis of sexual orientation. Provisions relating to same-sex partnership have been repealed because there are new definitions of “marital status ”and“ spouse.” These definitions no longer require that parties to a marriage be of opposite sexes Ontario Court of Appeal’s decision in Halpern. Attorney General of fined marriage as “the voluntary union for life of two persons to the government of Canada did not appeal this decision, and Ontario became same-sex couples could legally marry. In2005,a number of