

Module 7

The security guard should place a box over the gun and call the police.
Common forms of evidence security guards would collect include:

- Statements
- Pictures (foot prints, tire tracks, people)
- Burglary tools
- Damaged objects

For the collection of real objects, the security guard should immediately record in their notebook, what they have found, where they found it and as much detail as possible describing the object.