

Grounds of Discrimination

This section describes specific parts of each of the grounds of the Code, and highlights points that are distinctive or particular to each of the grounds. The Commission has developed policies that outline in more detail how the Code applies to grounds such as family status, age (older persons), sexual orientation, race, disability, gender identity, sex (harassment, and also pregnancy and breast feeding) and language (may be connected to ethnic origin, place of origin, race and ancestry).
