

Module 12

Section 4: Writing Incident Reports

Security personnel must consistently produce written reports detailing incidents, carried-out responsibilities, thorough descriptions of their tasks and observations. The instructor imparts guidance to students on crafting reports that maintain objectivity and adhere to standardized formats. Security guards are mandated to generate range of reports tailored for diverse audiences