

Registration

Registered employer If a business entity, other than a business entity that engages in the business of selling the services of private investigators or security guards to the public, employs a private investigator or security guard, that business entity shall

- Register as an employer in accordance with the prescribed requirements; and
- Provide the Registrar with a mailing address for service in Ontario, and notify the Registrar of any change in its mailing address within five days of the change