

Suspicious Packages

- Items that are not normally seen on the property.

Suspicious Objects Found

- If a suspicious object or package is found nobody should handle it
- Prevent anyone from going near or touching the object. Keep other persons away from the area.
- Try to establish who owns the object or package and when it was put there. This may identify that the package is legitimate and inadvertently left in error.