

Module 2

The Registrar may require an applicant to provide,

- his or her fingerprints;
- a clearly recognizable photograph of the applicant;
- his or her consent for the Registrar to conduct or have local police conduct a background check, including information regarding convictions and findings of guilt;
- his or her consent for the Registrar to investigate the person's immigration status in Canada; and

