

Module 4

WHEN?

When did the event occur?

The time and date are essential parts of the report. The events should be laid out in sequential order. Record things like: when you last observed the area prior to the occurrence; when the event began; when it ended; when you had contact with a witness; and when police, the fire department, or the ambulance arrived.

