

1.3 Security Guarding:

Module 1

Types of Assignments

1. Fixed post: The fixed post is referred to a stationary post that is located at a specific location for a specific time period. Security guards assigned to a fixed post must not leave their post for any reason unless revealed by a followed security guard. For example: a lobby guard, a bank guard or a guard assigned to a excess control point operations centre.

