

Module 10

Harassment & Equity

Canada's Human Rights Act guarantees equality. Harassment prevents or hinders equality. Harassment therefore is behavior that is contrary the goal of equality within Canadian society.

Harassment, whether a by a supervisor or coworker, can be construed as behavior that is demeaning to its victims and that interferes with the ability to work effectively. Sometimes a victim will feel forced to resign.