

Module 10

Avoid Hot Topics

Guards should never discuss religious or political views while working. Such topics are controversial, and many persons have very intensely focused viewpoints on the subjects. When dealing with the public, it is imperative that we never take any sides.

As Guards our work is best done when situations are approached and documented in a non-biased manner. A member of the public's views can change dramatically when something that they hold in high importance is challenged.
