

Grounds of Discrimination

Protecting persons “associated” with others protected by the Code : tact people who are not personally identified by one of the grounds. monition because of their as association with a person protect denuders on section12.The protection in this section applies even if the person could not otherwise claim protection based on one of the grounds, or does not share the same Code grounds as the person they are associated with.

A woman fills out a job application form and goes back with a friend to drop it off.