Module 7

Introduction

Security guards operate within the framework of the Canadian legal system and are required to have a profound understanding of its intricacies. This includes familiarity with the Criminal Court System, the Ontario Evidence Act, and the Canada Evidence Act, ensuring that the information they gather is admissible in a court of law.