- 1.1.1 Private Investigators:

  ○ A private investigator is a person who performs work, for remuneration, that consists primarily of conducting investigations in order to provide information such as; the character, actions, business or occupation of a person or business or the whereabouts of people or property for fees.