False Imprisonment

The following scenarios are examples of false imprisonment: Holding the detainee

- In the office of a departments to reusing implied threat so violence; In a locked room
- In a locked car
- In a locked closet Tied to a chair
- In a driven car without opportunity to get out
- By taking control of the detainee's valuable property